

SY216

Sociology of Aging

0.5 Credit

Theory, research and application in sociological gerontology, including ethnicity, gender, class, work, health and family and community relations. Attention will be given to aging from the three major paradigmatic perspectives of sociology: positivism, activism and definitionism.††

Community Support Connections DRIVER - Escorted Transportation

A.R. Goudie Eventide Home Volunteer Individual-Based Work Opportunity Leisure

Pals

Parkwood Mennonite Home Meal Time Assistance

The Westmount Restorative Care

Community Care Concepts Wilmot Senior Day Program Activity Assistant

Community Support Connections Friendly visitor to a senior or adult with a disability

A.R. Goudie Eventide Home Group-Based -- Recreation Assistants

Parkwood Mennonite Home Group Activities Volunteer

Beechwood Manor Retirement Lodge Social activities for seniors

Community Care Concepts Woolwich and Wellesley Senior Day Program Assistant

City of Waterloo-final Program Assistant

Pinehaven Nursing Home Senior care

Sunnyside Home Volunteer with seniors

The Village of Winston Park Senior Care

Parkwood Mennonite Home Exercise Assistant

The Westmount Recreational Activities

Christian Horizons Craft Workshop Volunteer